

Port Moody Ecological Society

Canoe Cleanup of Rocky Point

Come out and enhance the habitat for salmon and other wildlife by removing garbage from the waters of Rocky Point – on canoes!

Hosted by: Capilano University Outdoor Recreation Management Program students/canoe guides Chelsea Kennedy and Gareth Wheatley

Date: Saturday, November 6, 2010

Time: Time slots of two hours each, starting at 10am and finishing at 4pm.

Location: Rocky Point, Port Moody, BC
Parking available and bus transportation is nearby
Map of Rocky Point

Register online by e-mailing canoecleanup@gmail.com and nominate your two preferred time slots

Canoes, paddles, PFD's are provided thanks to Ridge Wilderness Adventures (<http://www.ridgewilderness.com/>) and Rocky Point Sailing Association (www.rpsa.ca)

Volunteers can participate free or by donation (all proceeds will go to the Wildlife Rescue Association)

Gloves, garbage bags, grabber tools provided by the Port Moody Ecological Society

Please bring plastic gloves and grabber tools if you have them as we have limited supplies

Waivers will be provided on-site

Event will run no matter of the weather, so make sure to dress appropriately. Suggestions for dress include:

- Warm toque
- Gloves/mits
- Gum boots (or shoes you don't mind getting wet)
- Warm wool socks
- Warm fleece sweater (stay away from cotton)
- Rain jacket and pants
- Dry change of clothes

